LIEUTENANT GIBSON.

The well-known pedigree expert, W. H. Rowe, thinks pretty well of Lieutenant Gibson and in a recent article says of some features of his ancestral blood lines: "Lieutenant Gibson is by G. W. Johnson out of Sophia Hardy, she by Glengarry out of Unaka, she by Enquirer out of Wampee, she by John Morgan out of Dora, she by Australian out of Lindora by Lexington. Lindora's dam was the famous Picayune, whose descent is one of the best of our so called 'native' lines, although it has experienced somewhat hard luck in having its better class of representatives ineligible for the general run of our classic events. In my list of famous three-year-old and senior events, for example, I find it represented by only three successes up to 1899, these being the Kentucky Derbys of Vagrant in 1876 and Lookout in 1893, and Ida Hope's Alabama in 1885.

"She was one of the best broodmares in America" was written of Picayune in the earliest Stud Book, however, and one may regard her female line as having met much the same ill luck in the American classics as has characterized family 19 in England. We have an evidence of this close up in Lieutenant Gibson's pedigree, too, for his fourth dam, Dora, produced Calomel, the dam of Raceland, whose absence from the classics of his day was but one of a long series of similar conditions in the family's history.

"G. W. Johnson's sire, Iroquois, was by Leamington, as also was Enquirer; but we find in Lieutenant Gibson's pedigree much the same conditions as seem to necessarily obtain in all cases of conspicuously successful inbreeding to Leamington. Dora was by Australian (he by West Australian, son of Melbourne) out of Lindora, by Lexington. Enquirer's dam was by Lexington out of a mare who brought a decidedly close doubling of this male line of Diomed, of which Lexington himself possessed three very close lines. Iroquois' dam we know to have been by Australian out of a mare by Boston, sire of Lexington, while the granddam of G. W. Johnson was by Vandal, who came close from the same line of family 12 which produced Lexington.

"Vandal himself was by Glencoe, of whom Lieutenant Gibson has two other strains, while Queen Mary and Alice Hawthorne, two of England's greatest matrons, are found at close range in the dam of G. W. Johnson and the sire of Sophia Hardy. Indeed, this latter horse (Glengarry) combines a double line of Touchstone (14) blood, which is well associated with the Leamington (14) in Enquirer, nicked as it is in G. W. Johnson's pedigree by Iroquois.

"An interesting feature of Lieutenant Gibson's granddam, Wampee, is the fact that her sire, John Morgan, brings another great line of 12, through the fact that his dam was Sallie Lewis, by Glencoe, from whose female line came such gems as Susquehanna, Potomac, Sensation, Harold, etc., all these being characterized by the Leamington-Lexington-Glencoe association found to be so closely allied in Lieutenant Gibson's granddam."

ABOUT ETHELBERT.

Discussing affairs at Morris Park Sunday and Ethelbert's future engagements, the New York Sun of Monday says:

"The various strings at the picturesque course were let off with mild exercise gallops, as the youngsters who had been through the mill on Saturday needed a rest, while even the handicap horses that were not out in the Metropolitan have been working hard enough to earn a holiday. Accordingly, there was ample time for gossip, and, as at the other tracks and the city resorts of horsemen, the chief topic was the running of Ethelbert. There had been an impression in some quarters that the noted son of Eothen—Maori might not develop enough speed over so short a course as the Withers mile to hold rivals whose specialty is sprinting. It was also thought that the horse would need a bruising race or two before reaching his best form, but all doubts on these points have been set at rest and many more brilliant triumphs are now predicted for Perry Belmont's champion.

"Ethelbert will have to do some great things to eclipse his record of 1898 and 1899, and a brief sketch of his career at this stage may be found interesting. He was bred at the Eothen stock farm by the same sire who produced Requitall, a past winner of the Futurity and Realization. Ethelbert's dam was imported from England as a two-year-old in 1887 and raced successfully here. The noted turfman, James Galway, entered Ethelbert freely as a two-year-old and in twelve starts the colt was only once unplaced, his victories including the Spring Stakes at Sheephead and the Nursery Stakes at Morris Park. After this race his present owner bought him and the youngster failed to carry his new colors into the money in the White Plains Handicap. Ethelbert was then retired for the winter and he came out last year in magnificent trim and began by beating everything in the Metropolitan except the flying Filigrane. Ten days later he won a purse at Morris Park and before the spring meeting there ended he carried full stake weight to the front in the Potomac Handicap. He won the Broadway Stakes at Gravesend and followed this up with a victory in the Spindrift Stakes at Sheephead Bay.

"His crowning achievement, however, was in the historic Lawrence Realization at the Bay, when he spread-eagled his field and earned a place on the roll of honor made up of Salvator, Tournament, Potomac, Tammany, Daily America, Dobbins, Bright Phoebus, Requitall, The Friar and Hamburg. Ethelbert then essayed to meet the older division in the Brighton Handicap, but Imp was just on edge and the old mare proved too much for him. If horses ever look for revenge Ethelbert must have enjoyed his of last Saturday, for he gave a decided trouncing to the idol of Chillicothe.

"The Metropolitan hero has five other engagements during the present meeting at Morris Park. He is entered for the Toboggan Handicap to-morrow, the Crotona Highweight Handicap on Thursday, the New Rochelle Handicap on May 15, the Claremont Highweight Handicap on May 17 and the Van Cortlandt Highweight Handicap on May 23. It would be unreasonable to suppose that he will go for all of them, but horsemen are hoping that he will turn out in the highweight series just to see whether he really is in a class by himself or whether the handicapper can bring the other entries on a level with him.

"One of the most important debatable points raised in the Metropolitan aftermath is how far the form will hold true in the Brooklyn, Suburban and Brighton Handicaps. In all these Imp is set to carry top weight and concede a pound to Ethelbert, the same basis on which they met last Saturday. Box, who split the pair at Morris Park, with 121 pounds up, receives an allotment of 118 in the Brooklyn and 117 in the Suburban and Brighton. Voter is rated in all three as two pounds better than Box."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Manager Frank Fowler, of the Queen City Jockey Club, is lying dangerously ill at his residence on Greenup street, near Eighteenth, in Covington.

"Mr. Fowler was taken down with peritonitis about 10 days ago, and was confined to his room up until last Saturday. His physician gave him permission to sit up on Sunday last and on Monday he was improved. Yesterday morning, however, a relapse came, and his condition greatly alarmed his friends. It will require several days of absolute rest and careful nursing before the critical stage is passed, but Dr. Kearns, the attending physician, thinks the patient will pull through all right."

Starter James Caldwell has accepted the position of starter at the Colorado meetings which begin May 30. The opening will be at Colorado Springs, where three or four days' racing will be held, then Pueblo will give a few days' sport and Denver will open June 9 with a program of trotting, pacing and running to last two weeks. Many California running horses will take part in these races and quite a number of harness horses from the Pacific Slope will also participate. The officials so far appointed for the Overland Park meeting at Denver are as follows: James Caldwell, starter of running races; John Ten Eyck, starter of harness races; F. E. Mulholland, handicapper; William Shuckman, clerk of the scales.

One of the highest class two-year-olds that has developed this year in California is Rollick, the chestnut gelding by Take Notice—Happy Maiden in the Burns & Waterhouse string. Rollick won his sixth successive race at Oakland on Monday, running the four furlongs in 48 seconds and winning easily. Happy Maiden is a young mare foaled in 1893, and is by Midlothian—Felicity, by Onondaga, granddam Bliss, by Bonnie Scotland. Rollick is a good looking chestnut.—Breeder and Sportsman.

In speaking of Kilmarnock's showing in the Metropolitan, John E. Madden said: "Kilmarnock did not run his race. Odom laid out of it too long, and when he made his run he met with some interference. The colt will show up to better advantage the next time he goes to the post." Mr. Madden claims he has some likely two-year-olds. He is waiting for them to "thaw out," as he puts it, stating that it takes horses some time to become acclimated when shipped from Kentucky here.—Morning Telegraph.

"M. F. Tarpey is the best two-year-old in the Corrigan stable," said Dick Williams. "This colt Father York, you hear so much about, is not to be compared with M. F. Tarpey, that is to say, as far as their work is concerned. I saw the pair work together at Ingleside, and Tarpey always took Father York's measure. Toah, a colt out of the famous old race mare Modesty, is about the second best two-year-old in the Corrigan string.

"Schreiber's stable won about fifty races and nearly $25,000 in stakes and purses on the coast the past winter," continued Williams. "Sofala was the best bread winner, with Bannockburn a close second. He started six times, won four races and was second twice. Malay and Geyser both beat him, but neither had any license to do it. Bannockburn is the best race horse and the best looking one I ever saw. Forte a good horse over a distance of ground. Schreiber bought him for $500 from Pat Dunne last fall and won $5,000 with him at San Francisco. He will be heard from in the long races east next fall. The stable made a big killing with Foul Play the only time she ever started. She bowed in that race and had to be turned out. Jerry Hunt was lame all winter and never could be gotten to a race. Miss Marion, after a hard campaign all last fall, stood a winter's hammering in good shape. Nothing but her class carried her through. She will be a good mare next fall."—St. Louis Republic

LAKESIDE TODAY.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the fifteen days' racing season this afternoon at the Lakeside track. Today's card is very attractive. There are eighty-one horses in the six races, and were it not that many owners anticipated a wet track there could have been double that number of entries. However, to all who thought the track would be muddy, a pleasant disappointment is in store. The speedway has become thoroughly dried and it is very fast.

All of the officials are in town. Colonel Hamilton arrived yesterday from Mt. Sterling, Ky., with his usual fund of good stories and is stopping at the Auditorium Annex.

That to-day's card is a good one is evidenced from the number of high-class animals which are entered. From a spectator's point of view three races are on the programme which will merit the approval of the grandstand. They are all at one mile or over and the entries in them make safe the prediction that each will furnish good sport.

What doubtless will be the feature race of the day is the first race at five furlongs. In it are such good sprinters as Algareta, Boney Boy, Ed Gartland II., Peace, Hermoso, Ben Ledi, King Carnival, Abe Furst and Iznik.

The second race at one mile will be a selling event. Among the entries are two American Derby candidates, Hood's Brigade and T. E. Barrett's Tommy O'Brien.

The third race is at a half mile for two-year-old maiden fillies and entered in it are a number of highly tried ones.

The fourth event will perhaps divide the interest with the first race as a feature of the card. In this contest Sam Fullen, another candidate for the American Derby, will meet The Lady, L. H. Ezell's filly; Eva Rice, who ran third in the Turf Congress Handicap at New Orleans; Molo, Myth and other speedy horses.

In the fifth race a fair lot of selling platers is entered, including Topmast, Holdup, Eanomia and Dr. Walmsley. Dr. Rowell would have entered Imperious, winner of the Burns Handicap in this race, but was too late.

Garry Hermann, one of the best of the two-year-olds in the south, will contend with a speedy lot of youngsters in the sixth race. Among them are Invictus, Anxious and Ben Magen.

Among the jockeys who arrived at the track yesterday were Moody, Flick, J. Martin, L. Rose, Silvers, Goodwin, McCann, Miller and Armstrong.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Amateur Cup and the Belmont Plate were on exhibition on the lawn in front of the grandstand at Morris Park Monday. These trophies attracted considerable attention. The race for the Amateur Cup, which is over the Withers mile, will be run May 22, while the thirty-fourth renewal of the Belmont is on the program for Thursday, May 24.

Pierre Lorillard has suffered the loss of one of the best broodmares at Rancocas Farm in the death of the chestnut mare Equality II., by Rayon d'Or—Quits. Equality II. was the dam of Bloomer, Elfin and Democrat. The latter is a prominent candidate in this year's English Derby.

Thomas Berry, the well-known horseman arrived at Newport Tuesday with his stable. Berry was lately reinstated by the officials of the Fair Grounds Racing Association, of St. Louis. He has quite a string of horses which should do well in such capable and experienced hands.

Winner—Ch. c, by Faverdale—Golden Rod.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 37 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second whipped out; third easily. Silverdale was skillfully saved during the long delay at the post and won like a good colt. Burns had a stout hold of his head all the way. Cluster was under pressure through the entire route and Boland flogged him for all he was worth in the stretch. Bill Massie ran his race at the post. Powers was unable to manage him and in several breakaways the gelding almost jumped the outside fence. The field was badly strung out all the way.

Scratched—17720 Pacquelin, 110; 17671 Tristain, 106; 17722 Sam Lyons, 103.

Overweights—Luego, 21 pounds.

Silverdale, place, out. Cluster, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Luego, show, 8 to 1.

Went to post at 3:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; the next two were doing their best. Kentucky Babe seemed to fancy the heavy going and on the far turn went to the front on call. Sarilla, after being badly interfered with at the start, made up a lot of ground and ran a good race. Wilkerson was out to the last ounce and swerved badly in the stretch. Grey Forge had bad racing luck. Lee King seems to be of little or no account. He was well ridden and had no excuses whatever.

Overweights—Kentucky Babe, 3 pounds; Sarilla, 3; Wilkerson, 3.

Kentucky Babe, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sarilla, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Wilkerson, show, 4 to 5. Grey Forge, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Barnes—Bettie.
Went to post at 4:05. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two. Trebor ran a very game race and was powerfully ridden at the finish. The same strong ride in the closing fifty yards would have won for Dieudonne. Walsh did his best and handled the colt cleverly but he got tired when the pinch came and was lucky in not falling off. Dieudonne was also bumped and interfered with on the first turn and was perhaps best. Possum seemed to be running easily in the stretch but when Winkfield set him down he stopped almost to a walk. Indian acted meanly at the post and seemed to sulk.

Scratched—17730 Wilson, 111; 17730 Lillian Reed, 105; 17724 Garrabrant, 96; 17562 Gadsden, 93. Trebor, place, 9 to 5; show, 9 to 10. Dieudonne, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Possum, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Scorpion—Lindollette.
Went to post at 4:40. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second and third were under keen pressure. Larkspur was much the best and had to be to win. Gilmore, on Fleuron, bumped into and almost threw Larkspur at the start. The filly was again sharply interfered with on the backstretch. When she got clear sailing, however, she went to the front like a shot and at the end was hard held. Reseda ran a good race but was tiring badly at the end and barely lasted long enough to get second place. Fleuron lost much ground by making a wide stretch turn. Aurea ran well. So did Maydine as far as she went. The latter was much used early and had nothing left to finish with.

Scratched—(17697) Shrove Tuesday, 103; 17676 Scarlet Lily, 101.
Larkspur, place, 3 to 10; show, out. Reseda, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Fleuron, show, evens. Honeywood, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Kismet—Zealandia.
Went to post at 5:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third driving to the limit. Zelmet went to the front when ready on the far turn and simply cantered home. He is a fair horse in the mud. Glen Lake is a coward and at the end under punishment was tiring badly. Vain showed a lot of speed. He appeared dangerous on the far turn, but when straightened away for home seemed to tire and then came again in the last fifty yards with a smart turn of speed. The race was strictly between the first three all the way.

Scratched—17723 Mac Flecknoe, 97.

Overweights—Vain, 31 pounds.
Zelmet, place, 4 to 5; show, 3 to 10. Glen Lake, place, 9 to 10; show, 9 to 20. Vain, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f, by King Eric—Virgilina.
Went to post at 5:50. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Isabinda tow-roped her field. She fairly ran away with Ransom and seems to be a good mudlark. Avatar had no excuses. He was prominent in all breakaways while at the post and was used more than the rest of the horses. Sound Money ran a crack-a-jack race. He got all mixed up at the start and never got straightened out until the stretch was reached, then he finished with a tremendous rush. Wiedemann, after being heavily backed, ran disappointingly. The others were never prominent.

Scratched—17727 Skookum, 101.

Overweights—Sound Money, 4 pounds.
Isabinda, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Avatar, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Sound Money, show, 6 to 1. Wiedemann, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Lady Uncas was never in trouble. She showed the most speed and held the others safe through the entire route. Robt Metcalf came again at the end and got second place in the last two strides. Native ran well and finished stoutly. St. Cloud was never a contender. Elfin Conig hung when it came to a drive.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ashes liked the going and was drawing away at the end. She got away well in motion and had a clear course throughout. Screech was under a drive all through the last furlong. Connie and Flatterer had a sharp struggle for third place. Moor, after closing a big gap, tired at the end. Audacious showed a flash of early speed, but soon stopped badly. She probably did not like coming down the hill.
